Message from IAP-National Respiratory Chapter

Asthma is a very common condition among the Pediatric age group, to help pediatricians stay at the forefront of rapidly evolving asthma science, the IAP National Respiratory Chapter (IAP-NRC) has developed the Advanced Asthma Course, a well-researched, structured, and expert-led program that brings the latest global evidence and cutting-edge research directly into clinical practice.

Now in its 4th successful year, the course has received an overwhelming response from delegates across every batch. Through this initiative, IAP-NRC has trained and empowered a strong network of nearly 800 Asthma Crusaders, committed to practicing and spreading rational, science-based asthma care—ultimately benefiting children nationwide.

The course combines online lectures with in-person contact sessions, guided and moderated by a distinguished team of national asthma experts.
